

The Research Journey

2011 Student Master Class Program
Tuesday 29th November 2011
Rydges Lakeland Resort, Queenstown, New Zealand

5:00-5:10

Welcome

Chair of Student Mentoring Group
Moderator: Professor Peter SW Davies

5:10-5:35

Kick Start your Research and Capacity Building

- An overview of the research process.
- Skills and strategies to facilitate progress through your candidacy
- Managing your research

A/Professor Paul Iji
School of Environmental & Rural Science
University of New England
Armidale, Australia

5:35-6:00

How to Publish your Research

- Identifying elements of a great manuscript
- Addressing the writing process
- Steps and strategies to getting published

Professor Dennis Bier
Director USDA Children's Nutrition Research Centre
Editor-In-Chief of The American Journal of Clinical Nutrition
Houston, Texas

6:00-6:25

Communication of Research

- Preparing an oral presentation for a scientific conference
- Key elements of a successful poster presentation
- Effective presentation skills

A/ Professor Lynne Parkinson

Research Centre for Gender, Health and Ageing
University of Newcastle
Newcastle, Australia

6:25-6:40

From Research Student to Research Professional

- The steps to building a successful career in nutrition science
- Important graduate selection criteria
- Valuable skills from a research degree
- An overview of career pathways for nutrition scientists/researchers
- Tips for students wanting to pursue a career in nutrition

Professor Dorothy Mackerras

FSANZ - Food Standards Australia New Zealand

6:40

Open for Q&A

7:00

Close of Master Class